

MEMORANDUM

TO: Members of the Court
FROM: Justice Kelley JK
DATE: December 19, 1985
RE: Proposed Rules Board on Judicial Standards
C4-85-697

It has just come to my attention that there are two mistakes in the copy of the proposed Rules of the Board on Judicial Standards which have been furnished to each of you.

The first mistake is in Rule 5(a)(1). The words "Formal Statement of Complaint" should appear instead of the words "Formal Statement of Charges." Likewise, in Rule 10(d) the words, "Formal Statement of Complaint" should appear instead of the words "Formal Statement of Charges."

I regret these mistakes were not caught before the proposed rules were circulated to you.

NOTE: Dec. 20, 1985: Talked to Justice Kelley and Bev Renken concerning the fact we had run 50 copies of the proposed rules for sending to parties who request same and that these copies do not have the above changes. Bev conferred with Justice Kelley and he instructed her not to make changes to copies of proposed rules being sent out, that these changes could be brought to everyone's attention on the date of hearing.

I did correct our two file copies at Rule 5(a) and 5(a)1 and also the Recommendation at Rule 5(a) and 5(a)1; and the Recommendation at Rule 10(d)
